

AMENA HAT | 1

Chunky and comfy, the Amena Hat is perfect for cooler winter days, and for donating to charity! This pattern was written with Syrian Refugees in mind, so please consider donating a woolen Amena hat to refugee assistance, if you are so able.

Note: Hat is meant to be worn slouchy, but the brim can be turned up, making this a fitted beanie.

DIRECTIONS

Using long tail method and smaller needles, CO 52 sts. Place marker to join, being careful not to twist.

Rnd 1-10: [K 2, P 2] around.

Rnd 11: K all stitches around.

Repeat rnd 11 until hat measures 9" from CO edge.

DECREASES

(switch to double pointed needles when necessary)

DRnd 1: (K2, K2tog) around.

DRnd 2: k around.

DRnd 3: (K2tog, K1) around.

DRnd 4: k around.

DRnd 5: DRnd 9: K2tog around.

FINISHING

Break yarn, leaving a long tail. Weave in all ends. Turn hat right-side out, add pom to the top, and it's ready to wear!
