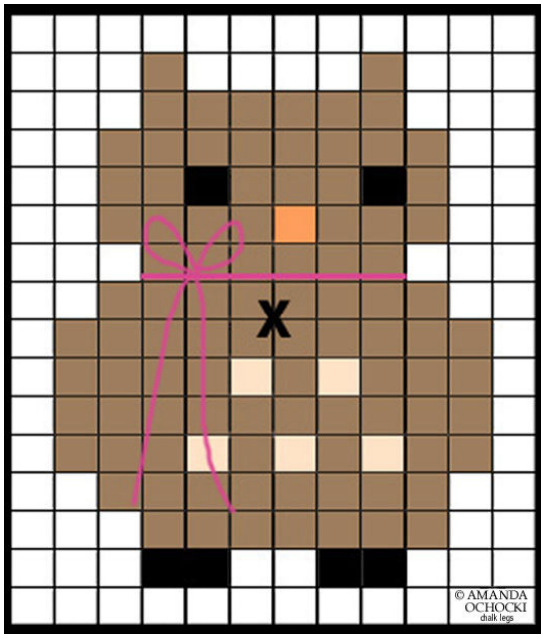
SWEET LITTLE OWL CHART

BY: AMANDA OCHOCKI + chalklegs



Perfect for duplicate stitch, fair-isle, cross stitch…etc.

I was having a hard time getting the chart I was working to be centered in the middle of my work, so I decide I would mark the center of the design chart with an X which is also representative of the center of your project…find the center of your project and center your chart to it = perfect stitch placement.

Make it a girl or a boy!

For the girl: Just take a blunt needle and some contrast yarn & enter between 2 knit stitches on one side of the neck edge (on the right side), leave a longish tail. Go across the backside of your work (wrongside) of the owl & poke back up to the right side between 2 stitches so that your on the opposite neck edge. Take both tails an tie into a sweet bow.
