

Autumn Leaves Scarflette

designed by Heidi Robinson for FlorrieMarie

This is the perfect indoor/outdoor autumn accessory. No more scarves coming undone or drafts giving your neck the shivers. It knits up in no time, and you can add a button or close it with a brooch or pin. Its simple contours wrap your neck in comfortable warmth.

Finished Measurements

- 32 1/2 inches at widest point
- 20 inches long
- finished weight - 185 grams

Suggested Yarn

- Koigu Kersti Crepe Merino (100% Merino Wool) 114yards (104m/50g) per skein
- For project: approximately 1 skein- 112yards (102m, 46g)

Needle

- 1 pair US 5 circular (at least 14" long) or straights, or needles to obtain gauge.

Notions

- Button(s) or pin/brooch
- Darning needle for finishing

Gauge

- 12 stitches & 21 rows per 2 inches in stockinette stitch.

Pattern Notes

This piece does not really require swatching. It is one size fits most. The above measurement of yarn does not include yarn for swatching so if you plan on making a swatch you will need more yarn

For Single Button: On row 18: slip 1, k2 cast off three stitches and continue the row as directed, starting with the lace insert. On the next row when you get back to the cast off stitches, turn the work, cast three stitches back on, turn the work again and continue knitting following the directions.

For Two Buttons: Repeat the directions for one buttonhole but do it on rows 16 & 34.

For Three Buttons: Repeat the directions for one buttonhole but do it on rows 8, 24 & 34.

For Five Little Buttons (recommended): Do not make buttonholes, however use the five holes made by the yarn-overs along the outer edge of the scarflette.
