

April Scarf

designed by Heidi Robinson for FlorrieMarie

When the weather is changing you may need something to keep your neck free from breezes, but you may not want a big bulky scarf making you overheated. This lightweight scarf is knit from gorgeous fingering weight wool. It would be lovely in a solid color, but the minimalist chevron pattern creates a very pretty zigzag when used with self striping or ombre dyed wools

Finished Measurements

- 7 inches wide
- 45 inches long
- finished weight - 185 grams

Suggested Yarn

- Koigu KPPPM (100% Merino) fingering weight 114yards (104m/50g) per skein
