

Cowl of Skaro by Jessie McKitrick

(Tweedlebug's Garden: grammargrouse.blogspot.com/)

The Cowl of Skaro is named for its Dalek-like appearance, though it was originally made for my daughter, who really just likes bobbles a lot. The cowl is knit in the round.

Sizing: Small (Medium)(Large). Circumference: 16"/40cm (18"/46cm)(19"/48.5cm). The cowl is fairly stretchy (the medium stretches to a circumference of 30"/76.5cm), so unless a loose fit is desired, instead of knitting size large, simply add more repeats as needed.

Yarn: Loops and Threads Cozy Wool, Super Bulky. (50% Wool, 50% Acrylic; 90 yards/82m , 4.5oz/127 gram ball), Velvet: 1(1)(2) ball(s).

Needles: 6mm Circular needles.

Notions: A tapestry needle to weave-in ends.

Gauge: 16sts and 18 rows/4 inches in p2,k1,p2,k2 rib

M1Bobble: In same stitch, k1, k1 through back, k1, then turn.
K3, turn.
P3, turn.
K3, turn.
Slip 1, Knit 2 together, Pass slipped stitch over.

Cowl

Cast on 63(77)(84).

Without twisting, join in the round.

Rounds 1 and 2: P2, K1, P2, K2, repeat to end.

Round 3: P2, M1Bobble, P2, K2, repeat to end.

Round 4: P2, K1, P2, K2, repeat to end.

Repeat rounds 1-4 three(four)(six) more times, or until cowl is as tall as desired.

Following round: P2, K1, P2, K2, repeat to end.

Bind off loosely in rib pattern.

Finishing: Weave in ends, and block as needed.
