

Elephant & Walrus

BLUE SKIES, COLD NIGHTS

INSPIRATION

Blue Skies, Cold Nights is less chunky and more light-weight than its predecessor, the sea-farer scarf. Designed to be worn on wet April days and cold spring evenings. Thank you Joe for the photos!

DIFFICULTY

Easy!

SIZE

One size, easily adjusted.

FINISHED MEASUREMENTS

Length: 117cm / 46"

Width: by 14cm / 5.5"

MATERIALS

Patons Smoothie DK [100% acrylic; 100g skein]; color: 01058 (blue); 2 skeins

1 set(s) US #XX/4mm straight needles

Cable needle / 1 double pointed needle

Button / Toggle of choice

GAUGE

22 sts/30 rows = 4" in stockinette stitch

PATTERN NOTES

ABBREVIATIONS:

Sl slip

C4b sl 2 stitches to cable needle holding it at the back, K 2, K 2 from cable needle

C4f sl 2 stitches to cable needle holding it at the front, K2, K2 from cable needle

CO cast on

BO bind off

PATTERN

Begin by casting on 34 sts

Row 1: K all

Row 2-6: Slip 1st stitch purlwise, K all

Row 7: Sl purlwise, K2, Sl, K8, P1, K8, P1, K8, Sl, K3

Row 8: Sl purlwise, K2, P9, K1, P8, K1, P9, K3

Row 17: Sl purlwise, K2, Sl, C4b, C4f, P1, C4b, C4f, P1, C4b, C4f, Sl, K3

Row 18: Sl purlwise, K2, P9, K1, P8, K1, P9, K3

Row 19-22: Repeat Rows 7 & 8 twice

Continue repeating Rows 17-22 until scarf measures approx 112 cm/ 44.1" (or desired length).

Sl purlwise, K all

Now create the button hole...

Sl purlwise, K15, BO1, K1, BO1, K15

Sl purlwise, K16, Turn and CO2, Turn normal, K15

Then, finally to finish the border:

Sl purlwise, K all

Repeat this row 3 times then BO loosely.

FINISHING

To complete, press the scarf lightly and sew on button

