

RIMU-LOU SCARF

Level of Difficulty: Easy

Yarn Weight: 3-Light Weight

Level of Concentration: A good “road trip” knit.

Rimu-Lou is named after two items: the yarn, Zealana RIMU, 60% NZ Merino, 40% Possum, and our friend Cheezy Luigi who in December asks for a scarf. What to knit for a stylish guy who’s neck is cold? But a reversible cable ribbed scarf in a Merino Possum blend.

The Rimu-Lou Scarf is a unisex ribbed scarf. A pattern with a cable, of one simple pattern instruction, repeated every eleventh row. Making the workmanship appear much more complex than it is. An interesting enough effort for any knitter and dull enough for any man to appreciate. There is enough concentration required to watch scenery while focussing on the cable when called upon.
