

Tulip's Super Easy Gauntlets

Consider this to be more of a recipe than a pattern. It's very flexible, you can chain more or less depending on how long you want to make them, make them thicker or thinner based on the size of the hands.

I use an H hook and some worsted weight yarn to make these/

Ch 35

HDC in 2nd ch from the end, and every stitch from there (33 hdc) Ch 2, turn

Do this for 8 rows or how many you need to make it thick enough to cover the palm.

On the 8th or 9th row (depending on how thick your hands are) HDC 8, Ch 4 and sk 4, hdc the rest of the way down.

Go another 8 or 9 rows, so that it's twice as thick.

Sew together.

Do it again.

It's easy as pie!
