DINKY DOILIES

Based on a vintage motif from a hand me down piece, this miniature doily style motif is pretty on it's own or when combined to create a delightfully delicate fabric. Made in the round, with a smaller motif to help joining.

Intermediate

Basic stitches used for the motifs, but experience of Join As You Go is useful for joining.

NOTE: For subsequent motifs, substitute the '3ch' (in bold) on Round 7 to '1ch, 1jss, 1ch' creating 'joined picots' whenever needed to join to adjacent motifs. (See below for more help.)

Dinky Motif

Worked in the round.

Chain 5, sl st into first ch to form a loop, then:

Round 1: 3ch [counts as 1tr], 15tr into loop. 16 sts

Round 2: 1ch, 1dc in same st, *4ch, 1dc in 2nd ch from hook, (1ch, 1jss, 1ch, 1dc in same ch) twice [makes 2 joined picots], 3ch, skip tr, 1dc in next st, repeat from * 8 times, ending the last repeat with a sl st into first dc. 8 'points'

Joining Motifs

When using the last round of the 'Doily' motifs to JAYG the jss will be worked into the corresponding 3ch picot spaces on the 'points' of the adjacent motifs. (A both of the picots on the top of each 'point' are used to join.)

The 'Dinky' motifs should be added in after the larger motifs are joined, and so every 'point' on the motif will be used to make a join and the jss are therefore written into the pattern.

See the diagram to see how the Doily and Dinky motifs fit together to form the design of the fabric.
